RESSINGHAM STEAM & GARDENS: Alight at Ipswich for a road coach transfer to Bressingham, where world-renowned gardener and horticulturalist Alan Bloom combined his passion for plants and gardens with his love of steam, to create a truly unique experience. The whole site extends to nearly 500 acres, including the biggest nursery garden in Europe, a five acre garden centre, cafés and restaurants, steam locomotives running on four railways totalling over five miles, steam 'gallopers', traction engines and other steam driven machinery, not to mention the Dad's Army exhibition. You should have around three hours to enjoy the many delights of Bressingham before the coach will take you on to Thetford to rejoin our train. Supplementary Fare £10 adult, £6 Junior, to include coach travel, entry and train rides.
